He met Milo P. Jewett, afterwards known as the founder and first president of twowell-known colleges for women, the Judson and Vassar. Jewett was traveling through the South in his own conveyance, seeking a location for establishing a girls' school. General King invited Mr. Jewett and his wife to visit Marion ... A larg wooden residence was rented and prepared for a school. It opened 7th Jan. 1839...nine pupils present, three of them sent by Ge. Maria Louisa King... married W. W. Lumpkin of Georgia, and her sister Margaret married a brother of Mr. Lumpkin, and many years later became a teacher in the Judson, remaining in the school a long time. Another of the graduates was Narcissa Goree, who c rried off first honors of the class. State of Alabama. Perry Co. Special Term, August 16, 1858. Estate of David Fluker, dec'd.

In the matter of the distribution of the balance found in the hands of Wm L. Andrew, adm. of the est. of David Fluker, dec'd, on the final settlement of said estate made on the 9th inst., it is shown to thesatisfaction of the court that David Fluker, Jr. has been advanced by intestate in his lifetime by provisions of deed which secures to said David an income and support for life over and above a distributive share in the estate now to be divided.

It is likewise shown that Eugene and Lewis Fluker have been advanced and provided for in like manner and extent. Whereupon it is ordered by the court that said David, Eugene, and Lewis Fluker be excluded from particip ting in the distribution of the balance in the hands of said administrator.

Administrator ordered to pay these sums:

Be it remembered that in the matter of the distribution of the estate of said David Fluker, dec'd, a motion was made in behalf of Wm L. Andrew and his tife and other distributees of said estate to exclude the said Eugene Augustus and Lewis Hogan(?) Fluker from any portion in the division and distribution of said estate on the ground that they had received property from said deceased in his lifetime as an advancement exceeding in value their share of said estate; and an issue having been made between the administrator, Wm L. Andrew, as n in plaintiff and the said Eugene A. Fluker and Lewis H. Fluker, infants, by their guardien ad litem as defendant, the said infants by their guardien ad litem denying that they had received any advancement, said plaintiff on the trial introduced the following deed in evidence. Here set out the deed of David Fluker to B. H. Adams as trustee on the 14th day of July, thin 18_. Testimony was introduced tending to show that aft r deducting the value of the yearly support of said David Fluker Jr., in said mentioned deed, from the value of the property described, 2/3 of the remaining value of said property could exceed the amount of the shares of said defendants in said estate. It was on proof that said defendants were the youngest children of said decedent, that they were infants of tender years, being considerably under 14 years, though their exact age was not proved, that they lived with their mother, Alice P. Fluker, who had the custody and management, support, maintenance and education of then; that the said Negroes in the said deed were also in the possession of said Alice P. Fluker, widow of decedent and mother of the infants; that said David Fluker Jr. in said deed mentioned was a cripple and unable to provide for his won support, and that all the other children of said decedent were of full ag xcept one who was about 20 years of age. The foregoing was all the evidence introduced on the trial and upon the said evidence the Court decided that the infant defendants received an advanc ment from their father, the said David Fluker, grantor in said deed, in his lifetime, and th t said advancement exceeded their shares of the estate os said deceased, and thereupon ordered that they be excluded from any further portion in the division... to which decision the defendants by their gu rdian ad litem excepted, and they pray that their bill of exceptions be signes and made part of the record...

No Haggard will or estate was found in Bibb Co. My search there was not exhaustive.

Henry Haggard is not buried at the Carleton Hill Baptist Church in Cahaba Valley, or is he is, there is no marker over his grave. Nor are there any other Haggards buried there, with markers. One enscription of int rest: "James Fancher died Oct. 22, 1850, in 56th year of his age."

A few Bibb Co. Marriages: James Haggard to Jane Mitchell, 25-28 April 1849 by John Williams MG. John G. Haggard quthorized to perform the rites of matrimony 7 Nov. 1850. /Baptist/. John Haggard married to Mary Bracknell (?) 3-15 Aug. 1865 by Geo. Stewart JP.

No marriages 1837-71; I should say, no other marriages of Haggards in Bibb Co., 1837-71.

From 1830 Census of Bibb Co., Ala:

James Fancher: 1 male 5-10; 2 males 10-15; 1 male 30-40 /pr. James/ 1 male 80-90 /prob. Henry Haggard/ 1 female under 5; 1 fem. 30-40.

Note: This James Fancher is said to be a son-inlaw of the Henry Haggard who was a Revolutionary soldier.

From 1850 Census of Bibb Co., Ala.: The only Haggard found:

John J. Haggard, age 38, farmer, b. Tenn. Malinda L. or S., age 34, b. Ga. Pleasant G. N., age 14 or 16, male; Martin M., age 12; Dandridge M., age 10; John W., age 6; James W., age 4, and Noah L., age 2; -- all ch. b. Ala.

Also from 1850 Census of Bibb Co.:

House 1086: Nancy Fancher, age 56, b. Tenn.

James " 56 ", farmer

1087: Henry F. Fancher and family

1088: John J. Haggard family listed above.

The old Henry Haggard, Rev. soldier, who was living with the James Fancher Family (?) in 1830, is not found in the 1850 Census, so I infer that he died prior to 1850.

From the 1840 Census of Bibb Co.: Henry Haggard, age 94, pensioner for Rev. or military service, apparently living with the James Fancher family.

The 1840 Census also lists a younger Henry Haggard, his family consisting of: 1 male 5-10; 1 male 30-40; 2 females under 5; and 1 female 20-30.

Also in 1840 Census off 31bb Co.: Joel Haggard: 1 male 5-10; 2 males 20-30; m 1 male 70-80; and female 50-60.

Note with reference to the Joel Haggard who is listed in the Bibb Co. Census for 1840:

I also found a Joel Haggard in Dallas Co. in 1820.

The northern boundary of Dallas Co. was originally the southern boundary of Bibb., thus including Perry in Dallas. Perry was established in 1819, by Act of Legislature, but the county government did not begin to function till 1820, and there is no Census for 1820, so far as I know. Many Perry Co. names are included in the 1820 Census of Dallas Co.

From the 1820 Census of Dallas Co., Ala., the only Haggard listed:

Joel Haggard: 2 males over 21
3 males under 21
1 female ov r 21
4 females under 21

There are som Haggard references in Hosea Holcombe's "History of Baptists in Alabama" published in 1840: p. 138: Cahawba Baptist Association was constituted at Cahawba Valley Church in Cahawba County (now Bibb) on Oct. 3, 1818. Licentiates: include Henry Haggard.

Noah Haggard, also a minister, is mentioned in the above volume. He was one of the early pastors of Ocmulgee Baptist Church in the eastern part of Perry Co.

From the 1830 Census of Montgomery Co., Ala., the following data on Robert Longbotham, said to have married Lucy Haggard:

Robert Longbottam: 2 males under 5; 1 male 20-30; 1 male 30-40; 1 female under 5; 3 females 5-10; 1 female 20-30;

Haggard Notes from Shelby County, Ala.

From Janes and Gandrud's "Marriages of Shelby Co., Ala., 1835-1875:

Charles J. Hagard to Elizabeth M. Davis, 1865. Mary F. Hagard to Lorenza C. Wilder (no date) Qualla Hagard to Willis Wood, 1849, by N. HERE Haggard.

Henry Haggard to Margaret Mitchell, 1850, by R. H. Hagard, P. G.

I found no Haggards in 1840 Census of Shelby Co. I found no Haggards in 1820 Census of Shelby Co.

Some Haggard data from Virginia

From 1790 Census of Virginia:

Haggard: Geo. and James in Fluvanna Co.
Henry in Albemarbe Co.
James in Pittsylvania
John in Amhearst
Patience in Nansemond

Note: Also a number of Gentry families in Albemarle Co.

Albemarle Co. formed from Hanover and Goochland about 1745.

From William and Mary College Guarterly Historical Magazine, 1st Series, vol. 18, p. 218:

Review of a book, "The Gentry Family in America, 1676 - 1909". Contains references to Haggard family. The author seems to be Richard Gentry, 2600 Troost Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

From "History of Albemarle Co. in Va." by Rev. Edgar Woods, published by The Green Bookman, Bridgwater, Va., 1932:

p. 205. Nicholas Gentry died 1779 leaving ll ch.: 1. Moses 2. David 3. Nicholas 4. Mary Hinson 5. Robt. 6. Benajah 7. Nathan 8. Martin 9. Elizabeth Haggard 10. Jane 11. Ann Jenkins

p. 365. Delaaration of Independence signed by citizens of Albemarle Co., Va., April 21, 1779, preserved in the rooms of Va. Hist. Soc. in ich-mond. Among the signers were: Nathaniel Haggard, Martin Haggard, and another Martin Haggard.

p. 387. A list of emigrants from Albemarle Co., including some who came to Ala., but no Haggard. Mentionsa Nathaniel Haggard who moved to Clarke Co., Ky.

There are some reference to Haggards in Swem's Index, but nothing which threw light on the problem of my client.

From Bardsley's Distionary of English and Welsh Surnames: p. 347. Various spellings of the name: Haggard, Agard, Hagger, Haggar, Hagyard, Hatchard. The fol. are listed in the Suffolk County (England) Hundred Robls in the year 1273: Ivc Hacgard; Ralph Hacgard; John Hacgard.

A variant spelling found in Yorkshire: Hagyard.

There are a number of Haggard items under the notes on the Wilkinson-Dobyns family in this typescript, pages 49 to 55.

We repeat: None of the family studies included here is exhaustive. We limited the work to the requests of our clients, and such random items as came our way while we were searching for data for others.
